

WIN ANTHEM
‘Women’s Battle Hymn’

There’s a battle cry around the world it’s silent and it’s loud we see it in each other and it helps to make us proud

Women have a history of neglect and abuse
it didn’t stop our ancestors and it won’t stop our youth

There’s a war against us, Sisters, but we’re winning every day
as we learn about each other
our strength shows us the way

They take away our children pay us pennies for our jobs they treat us like we don’t exist and pass oppressing laws

We need to help each other and have our right to choose the way we want to live our lives with freedom we can’t lose

There’s a war against us, Sisters,
but we’re winning every day
as we learn about each other
our strength shows us the way

Special thanks to the songwriters of the “Women’s Battle Hymn”

Lyrics by:
John Hackett
Paula Hackett &
Robert Curtwright
© 2003 USA

Norwegian Music by:
Synne Hall Arnøy
Torid Saurasune
© 2010 Norway

American Roots Music by Mike Fleming
© 2013 USA